presents:

The Swimming pool (La Piscina)

by Carlos Machado Quintela (Cuba)

Tuesday, Nov 10, 5:30pm
Roy Cullen Bldg, Rm C102

Rarely does a filmmaker take extreme cinematic syntax risks on his first feature film. Rarely does a debut feature arrive that is so unique that at first glance its origin or influences cannot be detected. But that is what happened with Carlos Machado Quintela's The Swimming Pool. With its minimalist aesthetics and a narrative style pending towards a documentary, this film becomes a paradox, a powerful metaphor of the daily life of contemporary Cuba. Dr. Mabel Cuesta will introduce the film. Light refreshments served.
